Candidate Nomination Filing Period Opens for the 2026 Statewide Direct Primary Election

LOS ANGELES – Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced the candidate nomination filing period for the June 2, 2026 Statewide Direct Primary Election is now open.

Candidates must file and return completed paperwork to the RR/CC Headquarters by 5 PM on Friday, March 6.

Candidates who want to file paperwork in person are encouraged to schedule an appointment before visiting the RR/CC Norwalk HQ. Appointments can be made online or by calling (800) 815-2666, option 4.

Alternatively, candidates may request that their paperwork be issued to them by email or U.S. mail if requested in advance of the deadline.

Candidates interested in running for office are encouraged to review the June 2, 2026 Candidate Handbook and Resource Guide. The handbook and resource guide include a variety of details and critical deadlines for eligibility in this election.

For more information, please call our Election Information Section at (800) 815-2666, option 4, or visit our Candidate and Election webpage.
