L.A. County Registrar Seeks Bilingual Election Workers for 2026 General Election

LOS ANGELES — Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced that the RR/CC is recruiting bilingual community members to serve as Election Workers at Vote Centers across the County for the upcoming November 3, 2026 General Election.

Election Workers play a vital role in administering elections by helping open and operate Vote Centers, assisting voters, and supporting the voting process throughout the election period.

The RR/CC is seeking individuals who speak English and a high-need language, including Japanese, Korean, Khmer, Chinese, Tagalog, Thai, Armenian, Farsi, Vietnamese, Russian, Gujarati, Urdu, Hindi, Lao, and Mongolian.

“Election Workers are essential to delivering an accessible voting experience across L.A. County,” said Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk Dean Logan. “We encourage bilingual community members to join our team to serve their community in a meaningful way, assist voters in their preferred language, and help every voter participate in the democratic process with confidence.”

Election Workers receive training before the election and can earn up to $1,080 during the election period, with an additional stipend available for bilingual workers who speak, read, and write in one of the County’s supported languages.

Community members interested in serving can apply and learn more at LAVOTE.GOV.

The mission of the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is to serve Los Angeles County by providing essential records management and election services in a fair, accessible, and transparent manner. For more information, visit LAVOTE.GOV and follow us on social media @LACountyRRCC.
