

Democracy works because you do.

Be a Student Election Worker

Earn income while serving your community

The Los Angeles County Student Election Worker Program provides high school students with an exciting opportunity to serve as Election Workers in Los Angeles County elections.

Earn up to $480!

Bilingual speakers are always needed!

L.A. County is a large and diverse community where many languages are spoken. If you speak multiple languages we're looking for you.

Serve your community and earn up to $480

Earn $100 per day of service plus community service or service learning credit. This hands on introduction to the democratic process looks great on college scholarship applications and resumes! Bilingual workers can earn an additional $100 if they speak and write in a qualified language.

There are many locations across the Los Angeles County.

We have many locations across the County where you can serve as an Election Worker.
